Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Please allow me to introduce myself to you through the mail. I am a 30 year old attorney from New Jersey. Like most Americans, I was shocked by the murder of President John F. Kennedy 12 years ago. I thought he was a special kind of person and, again like so many others, I was glad when Lee Oswald was quickly arrested and charged with the killing. (2)

In September 1964, I bought a copy of the Warren Report and was convinced of its accuracy (in retrospect, maybe because I wanted to be convinced).

In the interest of being candid with you, let me say that until about 1966 I displayed no great interest in the controversy about the Warren Report. I'm sorry to say that I was content, like many others, to accept the Government version and to regard those who criticized that version as eccentrics or worse.

③

When I entered law school, I learned to be more of a skeptic about official versions of anything. Since 1967, I have been something of a "student" of the Kennedy murder and the ensuing controversy about its "solution."

I now have read 30 books about the assassination, along with countless magazine articles, pamphlets, etc. I have watched any number of panel shows, etc. etc. To say the least, I am no longer the defender of the Warren Commission that I once was.

Obviously, you are one of the more well known of the critics. I have read Whitewash I and Oswald in New Orleans. Only today, I learned of a new book just completed, "Post Mortem", by you.

I understand that you also wrote a Whitewash II, III, and IV, which I cannot get in New Jersey in any book store.

Would you be good enough to advise whether you have any of your books for sale and, if so, the prices? I am ^⑤very anxious to read your other books.

Also, do you have any idea where to get a copy of the 26 volumes of testimony and hearings before the Commission? As a lawyer, I would like to read the testimony myself, but have tried for 3 years to get the 26
volumes without success.

Finally, if you maintain any kind of mailing list of people who are interested in your books, I would be pleased to be included on it.

⑥
Hoping you enjoy the holiday season and thanking you for your time
and assistance, I am

Very truly yours,

G. Donald Haneke
